Our Purpose

Join the Friends and support the work of The National Horse Racing Museum

Five enthralling galleries exploring the history of the Sport of Kings, from its ancient origins to today.

We help purchase objects for the collection and fund specific projects.

We arrange a varied programme of events to help raise funds and to encourage a shared interest in horseracing and its history.

The National Horseracing Museum is a founding member of Palace House alongside the

- Retraining of Racehorses: Situated in the Victorian Rothschild Yard, the RoR Showcase Yard houses up to 8 ex-racehorses with two daily demonstrations
- British Sporting Art Trust: Housed in the remains of Charles II's Palace, the Packard Galleries feature the very best of British Sporting Art
