Palace House Gardens

Palace House, steeped in history, occupies the last remaining part of King Charles II's sporting palace and stables. Located opposite the John Lambton Rooms, Palace House Gardens provide a stunning yet discreet location for outdoor celebrations, drinks receptions and photos.

The Rothschild Yard

A unique setting for outdoor private parties. The Rothschild Yard was built in 1903 and has stabled numerous classic winning racehorses. Now home to the flagship yard of the Retraining of Racehorses charity with up to 8 racehorses here at any one time. This historic horseracing courtyard provides a beautiful space, sure to wow your guests.

So much more than a museum...

About Us

The National Horseracing Museum is situated on a 5-acre site in the heart of Newmarket. It comprises three complementary attractions; National Horseracing Museum in the Trainer's House and King's Yard Galleries, the Packard Galleries of British Sporting Art in Palace House, and a chance to meet former racehorses in the flagship home of Retraining of Racehorses, Rothschild Yard.

Your Wedding

Formal or informal, traditional or modern, we know that no two weddings are the same. Planning for your big day is a big deal, from site visits to introductions to preferred suppliers, we are on hand to help in the early stages. Our mission is to make your day unforgettable.

Catering & Refreshments

The Tack Room, our on-site restaurant, is the perfect partner for your big day. With locally sourced food, a full team of waiting staff and chefs you won't need to worry about a thing. Tasting sessions are available on request. Fully licensed.

Rates

Prices start from £1500+VAT for the John Lambton Rooms. Contact us to get your bespoke package price based on use of the outside spaces, number of guests, menu and drinks choices.
