So much more than a museum...

Meeting Room Hire at NHRM

The National Horseracing Museum is a beautiful and unique venue which can host a wide range of tailor-made events, suited to your needs. Whether you're looking for an intimate boardroom setting, a spacious conference room, breakout rooms or to rent the entire 5-acre site, we will work with you to make your meetings run smoothly. Situated in a former royal palace and stables, NHRM offers an impressive space for any meeting, conference or event and is geographically convenient, being based in the heart of Newmarket and with close links to the M11, A14 and mainline train station.

Once your meeting is complete, make the most of our stunning site with a walk around the museum and galleries or meet retired racehorses in the Rothschild Yard.

Catering & Refreshments

The Tack Room, our on-site restaurant, is the perfect partner for your booking. With locally sourced food, a full team of waiting staff and chefs, you won't need to worry about a thing. Refreshments available throughout the day.

Rates

Rates are available upon request. Contact us to get a package price based on your room choice, refreshments and catering options and the number of delegates. Room hire starts from £250 per day.

John Lambton Rooms

80x
SEATED

Originally built to stable the horses belonging to the owners of Palace House, the John Lambton Rooms offer an attractive space ideal for meetings and conferences, as well as lectures, private dining and pop-up shops, plus weddings, celebrations and community events. Facilities include a private kitchen and state-of-the-art AV system. Square or circular tables can be configured to suit your room layout requirements.

TRAINER'S HOUSE

Boardroom

The Boardroom is situated in Trainer's House and is specifically designed to host meetings for up to 15 people. It is equipped with Wi-Fi and tea and coffee making facilities. A projector is available upon request

Alborada Training Suite

Originally built to provide extensive educational and adult learning resources for all ages and levels, the Alborada Training Suite in Trainer's House also offers superb meeting room facilities, with step-free access, self-contained toilets and tea and coffee making facilities within the room. The Alborada Training Suite seats 16 people comfortably and is neatly located away from the main museum.

OUR OUTSIDE SPACES

Palace House Garden

Steeped in history, Palace House occupies the last remaining part of King Charles II's sporting palace and stables. Located opposite the John Lambton Rooms, Palace House Garden provides a stunning yet discreet location for outdoor celebrations or drinks receptions.

The Rothschild Yard

A unique setting for outdoor private parties. The Rothschild Yard was built in 1903 and has stabled a number of classic-winning racehorses. Now home to the flagship yard of the Retraining of Racehorses charity with up to 6 racehorses here at any one time, this historic horseracing courtyard provides a beautiful space, sure to wow your guests.

The King's Yard

Located just off Palace Street, the King's Yard is an impressive space which houses our famous Frankel bronze. Flanked by galleries that take you behind the scenes of the horseracing world, and with direct access to the Tack Room and Bakery, this space is perfect for smaller gatherings.

About Us

The National Horseracing Museum is situated on a 5-acre site in the heart of Newmarket. We are run as a charitable trust and proudly celebrate Newmarket's status as the historic home of horseracing.

Supported by Arts Council England, the National Lottery Heritage Fund, West Suffolk Council, Suffolk County Council, and the racing industry (including Arena Racing Company, the Jockey Club, the Racing Foundation, Tattersalls and Weatherbys), as well as many private trusts, foundations and individuals from the racing world and beyond.
