WHY BECOME A FRIEND?

Join the Friends of The National Horseracing Museum and support the ongoing work of NHRM including the preservation and conservation of our fabulous heritage site and collection.

Enjoy a varied programme of special events and private previews to raise funds for the Museum and encourage our shared interest in horseracing.

Become a Friend of NHRM today and help us continue to champion this fantastic sport with its rich history and place in the hearts of millions of people around the country.

The National Horseracing Museum is so much more than a museum! Our 5-acre site in the heart of Newmarket is dedicated to exploring the history of the Sport of Kings, from its ancient origins to today. It comprises three complementary attractions:

- The National Horseracing Museum in the Trainer's House and King's Yard Galleries
- The Packard Galleries of British Sporting Art in Palace House, the former sporting palace of King Charles II
- The Rothschild Yard, dating back to 1903, where you can meet former racehorses being retrained for a life beyond the track, in the flagship home of Retraining of Racehorses

We have a fabulous restaurant, bakery and gift shop and visits can take from 3 hours to a full day, and sometimes even more...! Don't worry if you can't fit it all in in one day – as a Friend you get unlimited access to the museum!
