Horseback Falconry

Saturday 25th March
11am & 1pm

We are delighted to welcome back the Recycled Racehorse Falconry Team following the success of 2022's event. Discover how retired racehorses are retrained to work with birds of prey, showing the true versatility of the retrained racehorse. There will be two similar displays during the day, both of which will last around an hour each. Included in General Admission.

Family-Friendly Eggstravaganza!

1st – 16th April

Join us for a fun and family-friendly Easter Egg Trail around the museum throughout the holidays. Included in General Admission. Our free Creative Easter Workshops take place on Wednesday 5th and Friday 14th April, 11am – 3pm. Free nutritious picnic lunches will be available from The Bakery through the Holiday Activity Fund Programme. To book or for more info email info@nhrm.co.uk

Family-Friendly Half Term Activities

Families are invited to come along to our creative workshops on Tuesday 30th May and Thursday 1st June, celebrating 40 years of our museum. Suitable for all ages and included in General Admission.

Creative Summer Holidays!

22nd July – 3rd September | 11am – 3pm

Get involved for free in a summer of creativity every Wednesday and Friday inspired by the 'The Urban Frame: Mutiny in Colour' exhibition, which includes works by Banksy. Workshops include printmaking, stencil, graffiti mural and street art, and designing baseball caps and t-shirts. Nutritious picnic lunches will be available from The Bakery in King's Yard booked in advance through the Holiday Activity Fund Programme. The creative workshops will run on the following dates: 26th & 28th July and 2nd, 4th, 9th, 11th, 16th, 18th, 23rd, 25th and 30th August.

RoR Racing to Horseball Cup

Saturday 2nd September

The British Horseball Association, in conjunction with the Retraining of Racehorses charity, have created the RoR Racing to Horseball Cup to recognise and encourage the retraining of racehorses into Horseball horses. This unique sport is fantastic for ex-racehorses because of their natural speed, agility, willingness and experience of 'running with the crowd'. The first ever event of this new competition takes place here in September. Keep an eye on our socials and website for more info. Included in General Admission.

Suffolk Punch Horses on Display

Sunday 1st October

11am - 12:30pm &

2:30pm - 4pm

We are thrilled to announce the return of the Suffolk Horse Society and the world-famous Suffolk Punch breed to NHRM. Join us at the Peter O'Sullivan Arena for one of two special displays. This rare breed of workhorse is a sight to behold, and one not to be missed. You'll be able to meet these beautiful horses and find out more about Suffolk Punches, so save the date! Included in General Admission.

Special Exhibitions: QIPCO BCS Hall of Fame

Until April 2024

Launched in 2021, the QIPCO British Champion Series Hall of Fame immortalises the equine and human champions of British Flat Racing. A stunning piece of wall art, showcasing the current Hall of Famers and 2022's inductees, will remain in the Atrium until April 2023. The Hall of Fame then moves into its permanent home in the Thompson Gallery, where 2023's intake will be revealed over the Guineas Weekend (5th-7th May). Included in General Admission.

The Urban Frame: Mutiny in Colour

3rd June - 1st October | 10am - 5pm

West Suffolk is set to host one of the UK's largest contemporary art exhibitions of 2023.

The Urban Frame: Mutiny in Colour will run simultaneously across three locations - NHRM, Newmarket, Moyse's Hall Museum, Bury St Edmunds and Haverhill Arts Centre.

BANKSY

DAMIEN HIRST

Organised in association with Brandler Galleries, our exhibition will host over 50 works from some of the world's most renowned contemporary artists including Banksy, Damien Hirst, Tracey Emin, The Connor Brothers, STIK and Pure Evil amongst others. A number of the works across the venues have never been exhibited before, whilst Banksy's Hula Hoop Girl will be on display here.

TRACEY EMIN
